Annual Membership Meeting Held February 20

The annual membership meeting was held on Wednesday, February 20, at the CHUN mansion, with 13 members present. Chapter president Blanca Leos chaired the meeting.

Changes in the chapter’s by-laws, distributed last month, were approved. The intent of the changes is to make the organization more inclusive, streamline the structure, and modernize the wording.

Three persons who joined the Board after the last annual meeting — Curtis Halbach, Jaime Marston Cooke, and Rebecca Reynolds — were officially voted in as members of the Board.

It was announced that Rebecca Reynolds will take over from Blanca Leos as office manager. She anticipates putting in 10 to 15 hours per week; exact hours will not be fixed, so anyone wanting to meet her at the office should call ahead of time.

Jaime Marston Cooke and Mia Furtado provided a preview of projected activities in outreach, membership growth, and fundraising for the coming year.

A question was raised about the status of awards, specifically Swan awards. This will be explored.

New Office and Meeting Location Sought

PFLAG Denver is looking for a new home!

Because of problems with scheduling and maintenance issues, the Board has decided to leave the CHUN mansion.

Please help us find a new place for our chapter.

Requirements:
Minimum of 250 ft²
Up to $700 a month
Conference room area for our monthly group meetings (10-20 people)
Small event space (20-40 people)

If you know of any office spaces that meet our criteria, please email us at pflagden@tde.com or call 303-573-5861.

Colorado History Museum Offering GLBTQ+ Tour

History Colorado announces a walking tour, LGBT History of Denver: Another Side of Colorado’s History, scheduled for Saturday, March 30, from 1 to 3 p.m.

The script for the tour was written by David Duffield, local historian on LGBTQ+ issues who helped found The GLBT Center’s Colorado LGBTQ History Project. The tour guide will be Kevin Snow, on behalf of History Colorado.

Jeremiah Mora, Associate State Director for Community Outreach at History Colorado, is the man behind the project. Rex Fuller is director of communications at the GLBT Center, and he and David Duffield recently completed an exhibit on the history of Stonewall called the Stonewall 50, this being the 50th anniversary of the Stonewall uprising. The tour is tied with the Stonewall 50 Exhibit.

The tour will go from the CHUN mansion and Cheesman Park, past the First Unitarian Church and the early home of the Gay Community Center of Colorado, then along Colfax before ending near the Capitol.

The tour is open to all. For additional information or to make a reservation, contact the History Colorado Tours & Treks Department by calling 303-866-2394 or by email to reservations-state.co.us. Cost is $25 for History Colorado members, $35 for non-members.

Volunteer Voices By Lisa Telk

Coming soon is our award ceremony for our youth scholarship program. We are looking for volunteers to help us set up and break down, as well as help with the activities throughout the entire night.

Update on Scholarship Awards

The scholarship fund needs your donation!

Any donations made before April 1 will go to this year’s scholarship recipients, so the more you donate, the more we can award.

This year the PFLAG Denver Scholarship Committee has received 17 applications for scholarships from students who identify as LGBTQ+ or allies.

The committee is working hard reviewing these applications. Winners will be announced in the May newsletter.

The Denver Gay Men’s Chorus will present concerts — Fiesta for All! A Celebration of Hispanic and Latin Music and Dance — at three locations and at five different times during the month of March.

The DGMC notes that it is expanding its outreach into different communities throughout Denver as part of Fiesta For All! They have partnered with several local groups, including the Mexican Cultural Center.

Performances will be:
* Saturday, March 9, 7:30 p.m., in Brighton at the Armony Performing Arts Center;
* Friday, March 15, 7:30 p.m. and Saturday, March 16, 2:00 & 7:30 p.m., in Denver at the Ellie Caulkins Opera House, Denver Center for the Performing Arts;
* Wednesday, March 20, 7:30 p.m., in Littleton at The Falls Event Center.
